

Raith Rovers Community Foundation

Community Development Worker

Post: Community Development Worker (Re-advertisement)

Hours: 35 hours per week X 52 weeks per year

Salary: £19,110 to £22,750
(Placing dependant on qualification & experience)

Raith Rovers Community Foundation (RRCF) is a voluntary organisation and a registered Scottish charity (SCIO). Although independent from Raith Rovers Football Club it has the full support of the Club for its activities.

RRCF is seeking to appoint a Community Development Worker to further drive forward its social and educational programmes throughout the Kirkcaldy area. Your work will involve delivering informal community development projects as well as social and health education programmes. You will be supported where appropriate, by a small team of sessional staff and volunteers.

You will work closely with your team, other Raith Rovers FC staff and in partnership with the local authority, funders and other agencies. A key aspect of the role will be to manage, organise, plan and deliver social, education, health and wellbeing and sport based projects in conjunction with the RRCF Board of Trustees.

The successful candidate must have access to a car (expenses will be paid). You must have a willingness to work flexibly and on occasion, some unsocial hours. The successful candidate will be subject to membership of the PVG scheme. The position will have an administrative base at Stark's Park, Kirkcaldy.

In addition to a competitive hourly rate, the position offers 20 days leave (plus 6 statutory/public holidays), entry to Raith Rovers home league games and a flexible approach to work hours (dependent on the needs of the business).

Due to the nature of the funding for this post, in the first instance appointment will be temporary for one year and is subject to a three month probationary period. Induction training will be given.

The closing date for applications is Friday 15 May 2015. Interviews will take place on Thursday 28 May 2015 at Stark's Park, Kirkcaldy. If you have not been asked for interview by Monday 25 May, please assume that your application will not be taken any further.

N.B. This post is being re-advertised due to circumstances out with the control of the RRCF Board of trustees. Previous applicants do not need to reapply, as all earlier applications will automatically be considered.
